Fights Now Progressing In Flanders, Two Points in Picardy, Along Aisne and In Champagne District—Belgian Army Shows Strong Punch

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
London, Sept. 30.—(5 p. m.)—The British have cut the Hindenburg line on a front of eight miles and have penetrated through it to a depth of three miles in flanking operations about St. Quentin.

The German communications in this region are under such an intense fire that it is impossible for them to get any quantity of men or material in or out.

The British are in no hurry to clear up the situation about Cambrai and it may be three or four days before they actually take the town. The German communications also have been ruined and they cannot bring in help or take away much material.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
London, Sept. 30.—Field Marshal Haig's forces today smashed the Hindenburg line on a front of eight miles to a maximum depth of two miles. The British attack was made just north of St. Quentin.

CAPTURE 300 GUNS IN FLANDERS DRIVE

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
With the British Army in Belgium, Sept. 30.—Belgian troops in their drive, north and east of Ypres, have captured 300 German guns. British troops in the same area yesterday took 97 guns.

THREATEN WHOLE LINE IN BELGIUM

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
London, Sept. 30.—(1.45 p. m.)—Pushing the Germans hard on the front, north of the Aisne, the French today have reached the Oise-Aisne canal, reports from the battlefield show. They are progressing along the Chemin-des-Dames toward the east and the enemy is retreating behind the Ailette.

The British and Belgian armies attacking in Flanders have advanced for an average depth of five miles and a maximum depth of eight miles.

Roulers is in peril and the whole of the enemy's communications in Belgium and Flanders, particularly on the Belgian coast is threatened.

BULGARS RETIRE AFTER BITTER FIGHT

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
London, Sept. 30.—In the heavy fighting around St. Nicholas, in Serbia, near the Bulgarian frontier, east of Vele, the Serbians have compelled the Bulgarians to retire, according to a Serbian official statement received here.

Charevo, east of Vele and six miles from the Bulgarian border, has been captured by the Serbians and the retreat of the Bulgarian troops has been cut off, says the Serbian official statement of Sunday. More than 700 prisoners and 20 guns were captured at Charevo.

PRESIDENT URGES SENATE TO GIVE VOTE TO WOMEN

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
Washington, Sept. 30.—President Wilson considers the passage by the senate of the suffrage amendment as "vital to the success of the prosecution of the war," according to the address delivered before the senate this afternoon. The president stepped into the breach in the fight over the proposed amendment and asked for its passage as a war measure.

"I regard the concurrence of the senate in the constitutional amendment proposing the extension of the suffrage to women as vitally essential to the successful prosecution of the great war of humanity in which we are engaged," he said. "I have come to urge upon you the consideration which have led me to that conclusion. It is not only my privilege, it is also my duty to appeal you of every circumstance and element involved in this momentous struggle, which seems to me to affect its very processes and its outcome. It is my duty to win the war and to ask you to remove every obstacle that stands in the way of winning it."

YANKEE BIRDMEN DOWN 60 HUN PLANES AND 12 BALLOONS WITHOUT CASUALTY

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
American Headquarters in France, Sept. 30.—(Morning Reuters)—The outstanding achievement of the American army in the latest offensive undoubtedly was that of its aviators, who have done all that was expected of them and much more.

Their commander, Colonel Mitchell, proudly claims there is nothing to beat them in the world and it will be long before their record up to and including Saturday is surpassed, with sixty machines downed and twelve balloons burned without a single casualty.

BULGARIA WILL DISBAND ARMY AND WITHDRAW

Fighting Will Cease as Soon As Army Units Can be Reached

ALLIES WILL CONTROL BULGARIAN TERRITORY

Communication Between Turkey and Berlin is Cut by Armistice

(Compiled from A. P. Dispatches)
Bulgaria has signed an armistice with the allies and the first break in the alliance of the central powers has come.

Terms laid down by the allies were accepted by Bulgaria and hostilities between that nation and the allied powers will cease. The allied terms, as reported from semi-official sources, included the demobilization of the Bulgarian army and Bulgarian withdrawal from allied territory.

Far reaching results probably will ensue from the signing of the armistice, the first step toward peace negotiations between Bulgaria and the allies. With Bulgaria under allied control the position of the remaining central powers in the Balkans and the Near East will be most serious. The main communication line between Berlin and Constantinople will be cut and Austria-Hungary will be open to invasion across the Danube.

GERMANS DEFEATED IN FIGHT IN FLANDERS

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
Havre, Sunday, Sept. 29.—The Belgian and British armies defeated the Germans today in heavy fighting on the Flanders ridge and on the Messines-Wytschaete position, according to the official statement issued by the Belgian war office tonight.

The Messines-Wytschaete ridge has been occupied and the Germans have been defeated in efforts to defend the approaches to the river Lys.

British and Belgian troops on Saturday and Sunday took more than 9,000 prisoners. They also captured more than 200 guns, some of them heavy calibre as well as a very considerable quantity of other war material.

King Albert's forces at dusk this evening were attacking the Germans at St. Peter on the Roulers-Menin road, and at Collemolenhoek, 2½ miles west of Roulers.

TAKE 40,000 PRISONERS IN LAST THREE DAYS

Paris, Sept. 29.—French, British, American and Belgian troops in the last three days have captured 40,000 prisoners and 300 guns, it is estimated here. Since July 18, the allies have captured 200,000 prisoners, 20,000 machine guns and enormous quantities of material. This does not take into account the operations in Macedonia and Palestine.

Agreement Is Signed With Full Consent of King Ferdinand, Paris Paper Declares—King Remains In Palace In Sofia, It Is Reported

Paris, Sept. 30.—An armistice has been concluded between the allies and Bulgaria on the allies' own terms. The announcement was made officially today.

The armistice between Bulgaria and the allies was signed last night, a Saloniki dispatch states.

General Franchet d'Esperey, the allied commander-in-chief in Macedonia, signed for the allies, and the Bulgarian delegates for their government. Instructions have been given by the government to General d'Esperey to proceed immediately to the execution of the conditions of the armistice.

The armistice, La Liberté declares, editorially, was signed with the full consent of King Ferdinand. It prints a denial of a report that he had taken refuge in Vienna. The king, it declares, has not left Sofia.

The Paris bourse quickly showed the effect of the announcement of the armistice. Balkan securities were generally sought after.

London, Sept. 30.—Strong belief exists here this afternoon that a peace offer from Turkey is imminent.

AUSTRIA AGAIN ASKS FOR PARLEY

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
Amsterdam, Sept. 30.—A proposition that the presidents and vice presidents of the parliaments of belligerent and neutral states shall be invited to meet for an unbinding discussion of the basis of peace has been introduced in the lower house of the Austrian parliament. The motion, says a Vienna message, was introduced by Herr Neumann, a Liberal deputy. It would empower the president of the chamber of deputies to convey the invitation to the parliaments of the belligerents and of neutral states. The meeting would be held at a place agreed upon.

Amsterdam, Sept. 30.—Chancellor von Hertling and Foreign Secretary von Hintze have tendered their resignation to the emperor, the Vossische Zeitung of Berlin says it understands.

ANNOUNCES END OF FIGHTING IN EAST

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
London, Sept. 30.—Speaking at the Guild hall today, Andrew Bonar Law, the chancellor of the exchequer, said a Bulgarian convention had been signed by which hostilities ended today at noon.

Bulgaria, by the terms fixed, gives up completely the control of the railways, the chancellor stated.

This convention means, said the chancellor, "that communication between Germany and the east in that direction has been cut off and that the Germans' dream of a German middle-eastern empire has gone forever."

Control of the Bulgarian railways, the chancellor pointed out, gives control of Bulgaria. Alluding to the Palestine campaign, Mr. Bonar Law said:

"The magnificent success of our armies in Palestine has resulted in the extinction of the greater part of the Turkish army, but something more is going to follow."

HUNS WILL MAKE NO MORE TANKS

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
Amsterdam, Sunday, Sept. 29.—Representatives of the German war department have submitted to the main committee of the Reichstag a confidential report on the reasons for the decision of the army authorities not to manufacture tanks on a larger scale, according to a report in Vorwarts of Berlin.

The main committee was told that occasion had arisen to reconsider the decision.

CHILEAN EDITORS O. K. WILSON SPEECH

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
Santiago, Chile, Sunday, Sept. 29.—Newspapers here applaud the sentiments expressed by President Wilson in his address at New York on Friday night. They say that the speech confirms once more the wish of President Wilson that the world shall have a peace and legality by democratic nations of the world. This peace, they say, will place right above the force of cannon.

New York, Sept. 30.—Demands for an eight-hour day wage of $1 an hour, with $2 an hour for overtime, were presented to the national labor adjustment committee here today on behalf of 75,000 longshoremen engaged in overseas ship loading at ports from Boston to Norfolk.

THOUSANDS LINE STREETS TO SEE DEMONSTRATION FOR FOURTH LOAN

Jackie' Band From Naval Training Station Is Again Feature of Great Parade—B. & O. Engine Steams Through Streets, Leading Railroad Employees

The big Liberty loan parade yesterday, preceding the starting of the canvass for the sale of the fourth Liberty bonds, Tuesday morning, was undoubtedly the largest ever held in the city. The weather was ideal, and the lifting of the ban against the use of gasoline brought several thousand people to the city from the rural districts. It can be stated, however, that not a city machine was seen on the streets, except one or two which necessity required.

The organizations in the various divisions of the parade began forming promptly and all were in their places before 2 o'clock—the hour named for the parade to move. It was only a little after that hour when the marchers started from East Main street in charge of Captain W. C. Miller and Sylvester H. Beadle, grand marshals of the day.

The big line moved to North Park Place and reaching Third street turned to Church and out that thoroughfare to Sixth, then over to West Main and back to the public square, marching around the south side and the lifting of the ban against the use of gasoline brought several thousand people to the city from the rural districts. It can be stated, however, that not a city machine was seen on the streets, except one or two which necessity required.

There was no effort at display by the various societies, and no floats, except those shown by the various factories engaged in war-work. These were novel and attracted much attention. A unique feature was the appearance on the city car tracks of a steam engine from the Baltimore & Ohio railway shops, fully manned and under its own steam. It's shrill shrieks could be heard for blocks and the clangor of the bells assisted in making a great din. On the cab of the engine were the words: "Baltimore & Ohio Employees Buy War Bonds." The engine joined the marchers in West Main street and also "got in the movies."

There were six bands in the parade—one, the Great Lakes naval organization, had 57 pieces. The boys looked attractive in their natty uniforms and white caps and were thorough musicians. The Buckeye band also came in for a large share of praise, as did the Brownsville, Gratiot and Roumanians. The Letter-carriers' band from Columbus, was brought over by the American Motor Truck company and marched with that organization. The Neil O'Brien Minstrel band failed to arrive owing to a wreck at Butler, as did also the Ladies' Military band of Marietta. The latter had two changes to make and the women were left at Newcomertown. The non-appearance of the two organizations was quite a disappointment.

The streets along the entire line of march were crowded with people and the crowd was estimated at from 20,000 to 25,000. All were eager to view the big procession and scores of people occupied roofs, windows and vantage points, cheering the various organizations as they passed.

After the parade disbanded the naval band marched to the courthouse park and took seats upon the big platform from which the exercises were held. The big park was crowded with thousands of people, all eager to hear the music and addresses. Attorney A. S. Mitchell presided, and introduced Rev. Geo. Bohon Schmitt, who asked the invocation. YANKS FIGHT TO FINISH IN DENSE ARGONNE WOOD

American Headquarters in France, Sunday, Sept. 29.—(Reuters).—Fighting along the new front northwest of Verdun has settled down to the dreary business to which the machine gun has reduced modern warfare. Progress is being measured by the laborious reduction of small points which are held by small groups of men, but able to paralyze force out of all proportion to their fighting value.

DOWN HUN PLANE WITH RIFLE FIRE

With the American Army in France, Sept. 29, American infantrymen have had the rare experience of bagging a German airplane with their rifles in the Vosges. Unfortunately for the German, he passed over a company of infantry resting at the side of a road. The officer in command ordered the men to fire at the machine, and every rifle in the company came into action. The machine fell in flames.

FRENCH RENEW DRIVE ON CHAMPAGNE FRONT

(Associated Press Telegram) Paris, Sept. 29.—(Havas).—General Gouraud's army attacked this morning on the northern slopes of Bellevue heights, Mont Cuvelet and Bouconville. A line of the French has been crossed and hatched the northern village of Maure on the west side of the brook have been taken.

HUNS GRADUALLY LOSE GROUND IN FRANCE

(Associated Press Telegram) Paris, Sept. 29.—The progress in breaking the hold of the German invader on French soil is shown by the fact that no longer is any of the French departments entirely occupied by the enemy. The situation was especially true in the Vosges, where the German army has been driven back to the west side of the Moselle.

An examination of one section of the 22-mile front on which General Gouraud is fighting in the Champagne will give an idea of the German waste of manpower. On the eve of attack, General Ludendorff, feeling uneasy, reinforced the defenders with two or three divisions. After two days' fighting he threw in 10 more divisions. This 12 or 13 divisions have been used up on a front of 22 miles only. From this the speed at which the German strength is being whittled away may easily be calculated.

Advertising—KEEPING ABREAST OF THE TIMES

By William H. Rankin, President, Wm. H. Rankin Company New York, Washington, Chicago

A series of fifty-two articles written by experts on advertising for your benefit. They will appear in The Advocate. Read them and learn how advertising helps you. More new, partially-informed or misinformed sales clerks are behind the counters than ever before in history. The war has made great inroads upon the ranks of store clerks. It now takes longer for you to make up your mind about a purchase because so often the clerk "doesn't know." You must rely more upon a minute inspection of the article and, not being an authority on the subject, often you either buy on chance or defer the purchase. Your time is wasted—and right in these days when so many our duties need every minute you can spare. The clerk's time is occupied in "waiting on you"—mostly "waiting" for you to tell yourself. Then, if you postpone buying, the store suffers a loss and the merchant's expenses are increased. Tend to restrict this ability to buy Liberty Bonds and contribute to the Red Cross, Y. M. C. A., Knights of Columbus, or Salvation Army. There is a way for you to avoid this wasting of time—a way which quickly enables you to select meritorious articles regardless of uninformed clerks. It is: Read advertisements. Advertising offers you a labor-saving buying guide. It furnishes the merchants and the manufacturer with labor-saving salesmanship. Advertisements are written by people who are thoroughly posted about the advertised article. One good salesman can, by giving his talk, sell many thousands of people what they wish to know, where he could only inform a few if he had to rely on his voice. Advertisements are, then, in reality, well informed sales people talking to you in print. Their language is careful and condensed, and they tell you facts in as few words as possible. Very seldom does anyone advertise unless he has an unusually good product to offer. The cost of advertising automatically bars the unsuccessful. On the other hand, advertising is the cheapest way a storekeeper can produce an increase in sales—for thousands are told the story in print where the same expense would tell only a few in person. So read advertisements that describe things you need or tell you of products you should have. Read advertisements in newspapers, magazines, etc. Make up your mind as to what you want—before you enter the store. Then "green" clerks won't interfere with your selection of dependable articles. Advertisements post you regarding new and better goods, improvements in methods, etc. They keep you abreast of the times with the least trouble on your part. "Advertising to Victory" is the slogan you read in the Government's extensive advertising. Advertising has loosed the purse strings of the nation, has sold billions of dollars' worth of Liberty Bonds and War Savings Stamps, has filled the coffers of the Red Cross, Knights of Columbus, Y. M. C. A. and Salvation Army, has sent Smilge Books to thousands of our boys, has knocked the prop from propaganda inspired by spies and enemy aliens. Advertising has provided shipworkers, has helped to equalize the labor situation. You have been informed that it is your duty to do by these Government advertisements. You have been so informed at a cost which is infinitesimal compared with what would have been the expense had the Government been compelled to send representatives to tell you, in person, all these things. Victory hinges upon conservation. Conservation of human effort ranks foremost. Because advertising is the conservation way to inform and become informed, it is the victory way. That is why the slogan is "Advertising to Victory." Read advertisements—today more than ever before. Keep posted—for conditions are changing from day to day and the past is unlike the present. Save time—for your time, the clerk's time, the dealer's time, the manufacturer's time, is the nation's most important need. Manufacturers will necessarily have to curtail their salesmen on the road and the only substitute for salesmen is "silent salesmanship," i. e., printed advertising. Therefore, retailers will be asked to send their orders for merchandise by mail and the best way for manufacturers to make thousands of calls on retailers without employing salesmen is through printed advertising in trade papers, newspapers, farm papers and magazines. Advertising, too, will be used to tell you why you can't not buy certain goods, and to continue the good will and trademark value of such manufacturers in the minds of the consumer and the dealer so that after we win the war, the sale of such products can be increased and multiplied. During the past four years, no automobiles have been sold or offered for sale in Great Britain, yet the manufacturers of automobiles have continued their advertising unabated with the full approval of the government, and their good will and standing with the buyers will be 100 per cent after the war, rather than, say, 10 per cent, if they had discontinued their advertising. So, read advertisements to keep posted as to what to buy and also to be informed why you cannot buy certain brands of goods because their manufacturers are devoting all of their time to building war products to help win the war and keep a warm spot in your heart for the goods no longer available on the dealers' shelves, because they, too, like our boys overseas, will "come back" after the war and renew old friendships and we want to be ready with our Victory Celebration and say "Welcome Home Again. Advertised Product—your company did good work for Uncle Sam and we are going to show our appreciation by buying even more of such products than before the war." In that way the advertiser's good will will be maintained and he will draw dividends in increased sales after the war to make up for the loss of trade during the war.

ENEMY'S RIGHT WEAK AFTER FRENCH ASSAULT

(Associated Press Telegram) With the French Army in Champagne, Sunday, Sept. 29.—The capture of Mont Cuvelet and Bouconville by French troops is most important and has already borne fruit. These heights permit the French to overlook the valley of the Aisne and the important railway junction of Chalange. They can now see the mouth of the valley through which flows the river Aisne. Along this river a railway runs westward from Mouron to Grand Pre. It is the only route possible for troops passing through the Argonne forest. South of the Aisne forest is a mass of impassable swamps. The railway at Chalange is under fire and the Americans on the other side of the forest are steadily approaching the Grand Pre. Yesterday's desperate fighting was not in vain. The enemy's right flank in the Champagne is weakening.

BULGARIA WILL

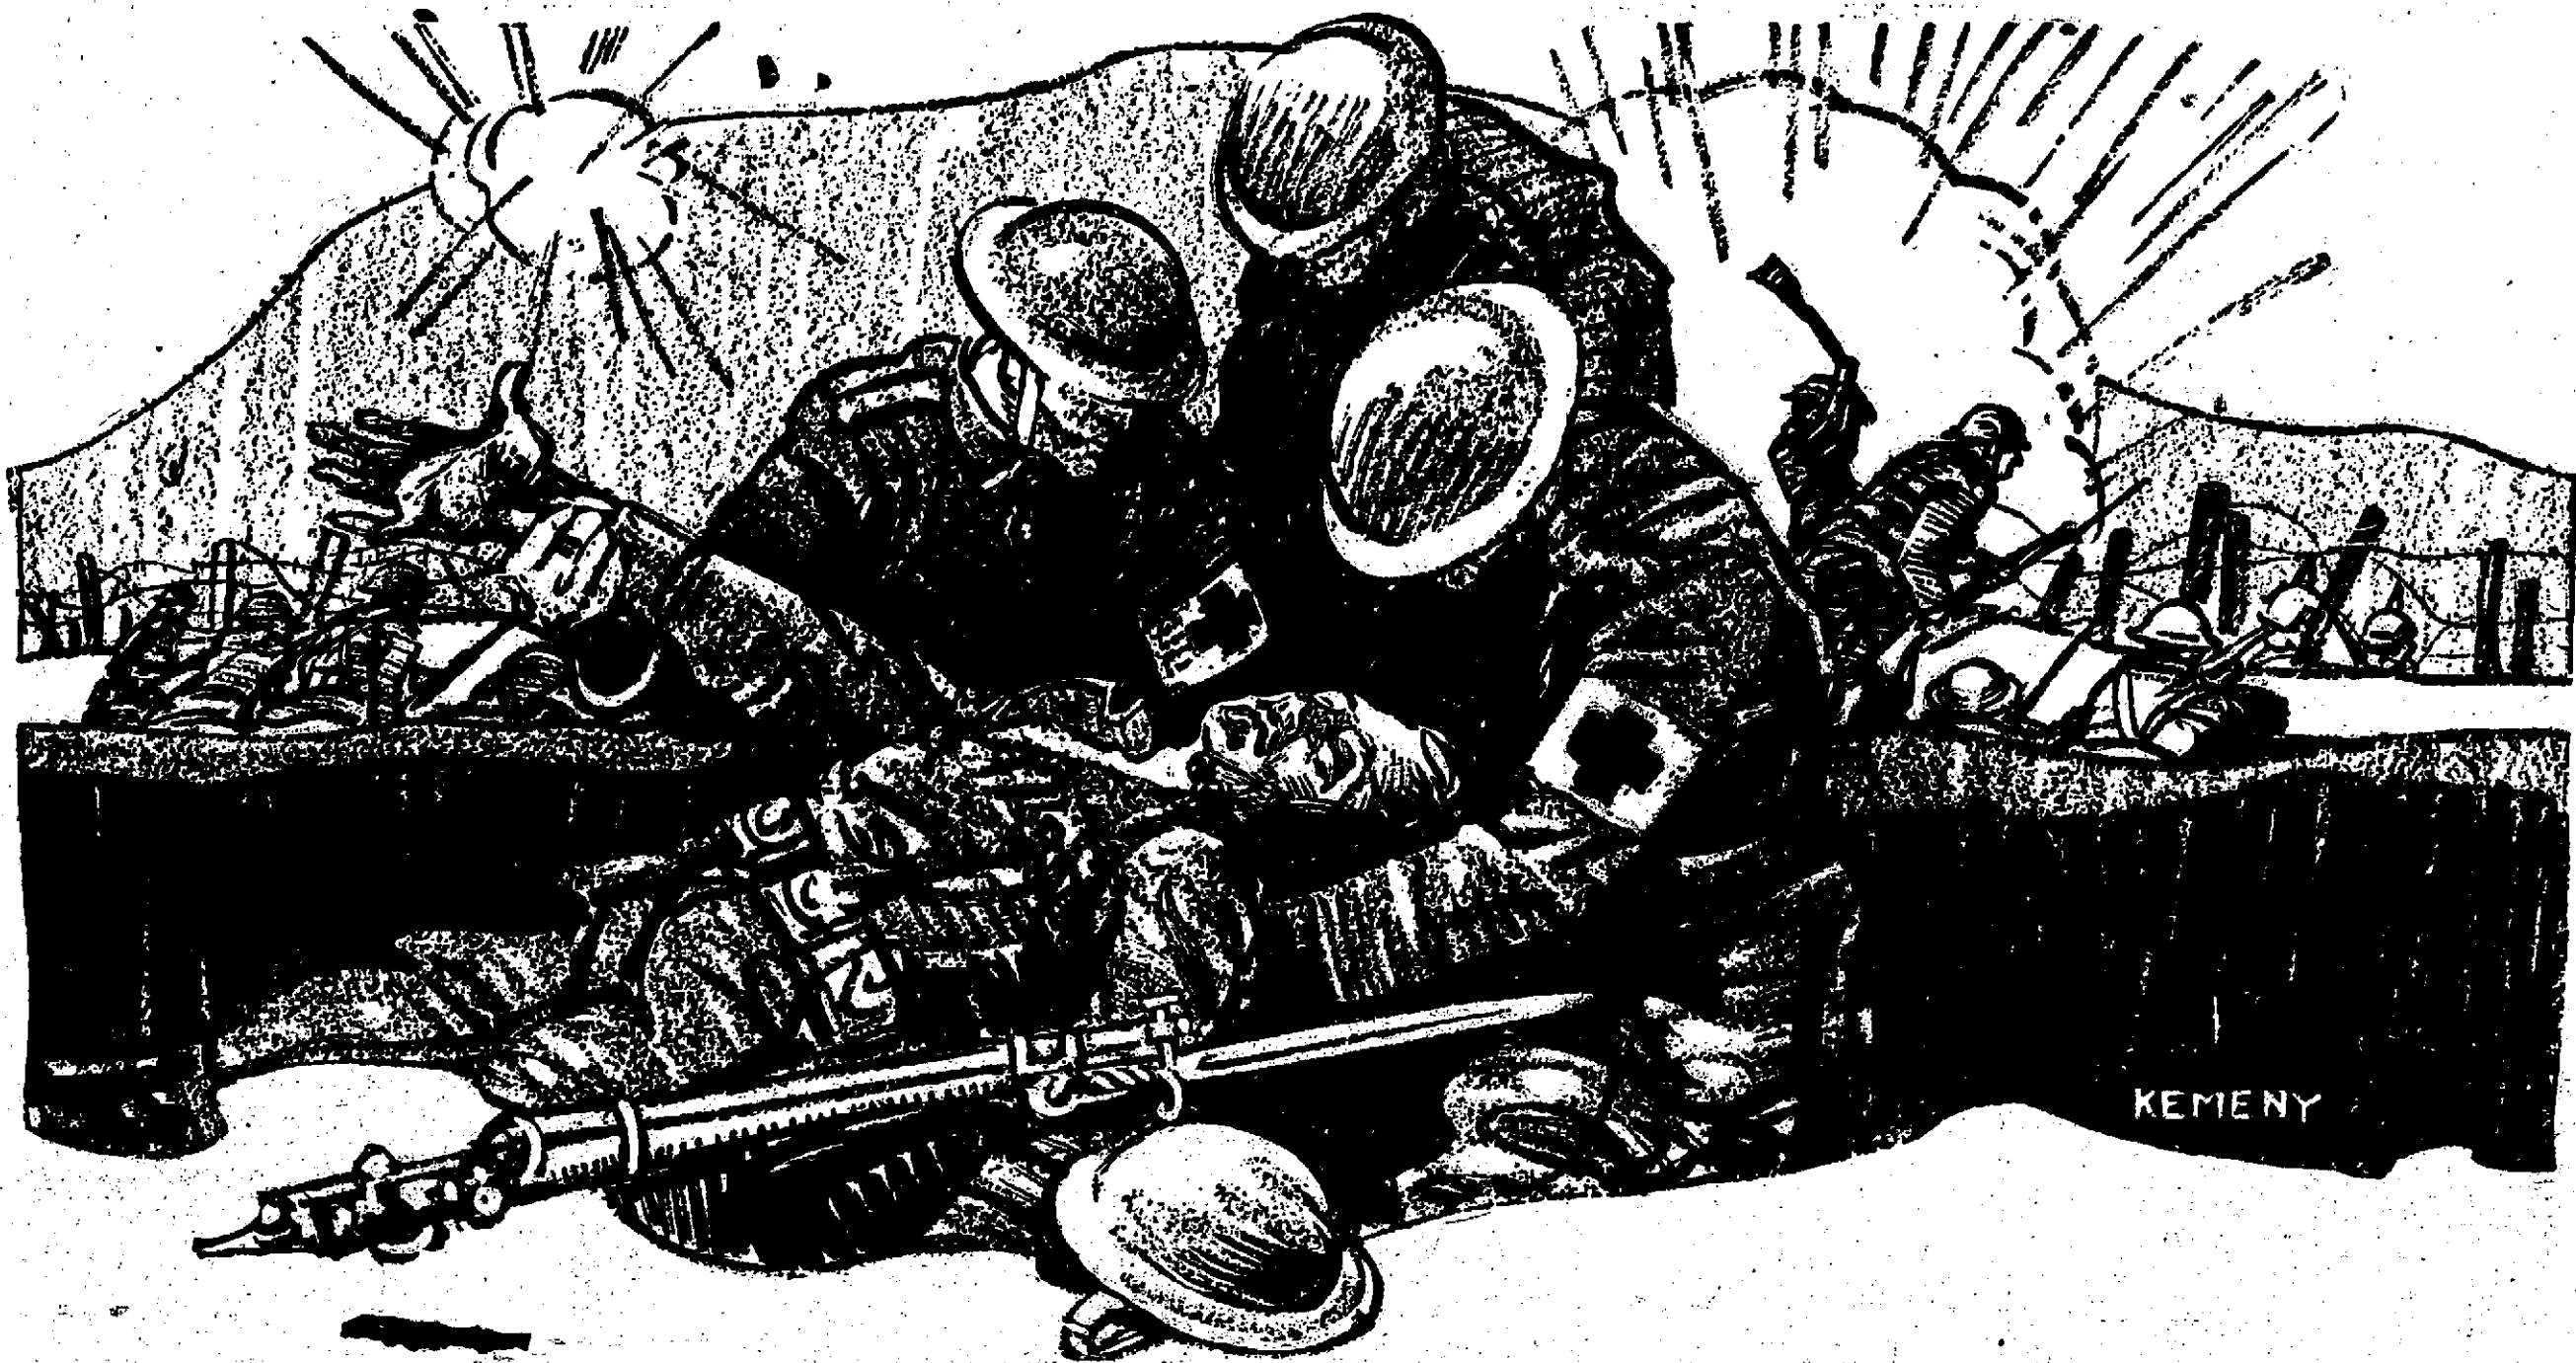

(Continued From Page 1) sea to the Meuse the allied armies are pressing vigorously and successfully through the main German defenses. The suburbs of Cambrai have been entered and the allies are closing in on Lille, St. Quentin and Laon, while the French and American drive northward west of the Meuse against the German communication lines continues. Germany's hard pressed armies are fighting desperately to stay the allied onslaughts but the French, British, Americans and Belgians are fighting their way steadily into the German defense line over three or four fronts which probably will result in a German retreat to the French border if not to the Rhine. The heaviest fighting of the war on the western front now is in progress and the allies on all sectors are moving ahead.

In Flanders the Germans have been driven from the hills around Ypres and from the formidable Messines-Wytschate position. They are to defend the approaches to the Lys failed before the attacks of the Belgian and British troops, who are driving a wedge before the Belgian coast and the great fortress of Lille, threatening both Lille and the submarine bases of Ostend and Zeebrugge. More than 9,000 Germans have been captured in the Flanders operations. From south of the Scarpe to the Oise north of Laon the British, French and Americans are crushing the German defenses with mighty hammer blows. The outskirts of Cambrai have been entered and the French are in a position to outflank both at St. Quentin and Laon. In Champagne General Gouraud has resumed his drive northward toward important German railway centers between Laon and Metz. Most of the hill positions are in his hands and the German communications are in great danger. East of Arras, the Americans continue their pressure. Before the summer ends the Bulgarian armistice, the allied troops in Macedonia had made further substantial progress toward the invasion of Bulgaria and the liberation of Serbia. British and Greek troops are approaching Detroit, near the Stura, while on the north the Serbs are pressing toward Subotica. East of Vele the Serbians are within six miles of the Bulgarian border.

WHILE HEADS ARE BARED

GRAY SWINGLE

GRAY SWINGLE, ARCH LEEDY and GEORGE DRAKE, it is ours reverently to acknowledge the service you have rendered.

To your country and ours, you gave all you had to give, a life, young and buoyant, offered when you just arrived at life's fullest understanding—and more than this no man can give.

How well we all remember them, we remember how when they enlisted we just knew that they would make good. We knew that whatever they would be called upon to do for their country they would do willingly and well.

AND NOW THEY ARE DEAD—Gray Swingle and George Drake on the battlefield of France, Arch Leedy sent to a watery grave by the treacherous underseas Hun pirates.

There is nothing we can do for them now. We can only hope that we did our duty towards them while they lived. They would not have us mourn in spirit for it is an investment, not a loss, when a man dies for his country.

ARCH LEEDY

AND YET THERE IS SOMETHING WE CAN STILL DO FOR THEM AND THEIR MEMORY

We can do all in our power to see those with whom they fought, their friends—our boys on the seas and "over there"—are not lacking for anything they need.

We can buy more and more Liberty Bonds, so we can send over more guns, more shells, more supplies. We, who cannot go "over there" can show by our support of the Fourth Liberty Loan whether or not we are backing up the boys who are fighting OUR fight.

America expects this day that every man and woman do HIS or HER duty, and America expects every man and woman to prove their patriotism, their loyalty by subscribing freely to Liberty Bonds of the fourth issue.

GEORGE DRAKE

This is no time for letting down. This is no time to talk of easing up. This is the time for a last decisive blow that will put the kaiser and his gang of women and baby murderers back in Potsdam, with American soldiers at the gate to keep them where they will never again make the lives of better men the playthings of kings.

The glorious American army is fast driving the German hordes back to their doom, so let us put forth our supreme effort, let us—in memory of our Newark boys who bravely and willingly died for us and in memory of the thousands of other American boys whose lives have been sacrificed in order that FREEDOM and Democracy shall not perish from the earth

President Wilson should order a very large and spacious waste basket to drop fake German peace proposals into this winter.

The economist now suggest reducing men's pockets to three, of which two of course will be required to put your hands in.

The revolutions of the dealings of the Bolsheviks with the Germans remind one of the time when the woolly lamb set out to bunco the wolf.

The Germans will no doubt be able as they claim to keep warm next winter, as the allies propose to give them plenty of running exercise.

The women who try to preserve their beauty by cosmetics, are apt to be the same ones whom no one is interested in because they are so self conscious.

Kaiser Bill has nervous breakdown, but if the U-boat could get a few hospital ships of wounded soldiers, it might restore him to health and spirit.

Prominent among those who are living up to the "Save till it Pitches" maxim, is the landlady on dealing meat and other luxuries out to the boarders.

After growling because army supplies aren't going over faster, some people kick because of the sugar shortage which is caused by taking ships to carry army material in.

The Russian Socialists got $25,000,000 from the Huns for promoting pacifism, and yet some people think all the soap box orators in this country are sincere humanitarians.

What many of the congressmen are most interested in about now, is not to get their speeches printed in the Congressional Record, but to get their votes against war measures erased therefrom.

Some one wants to know what should be done to the motorists who won't cooperate in gas saving? Well one good place for them would be the trenches with Hun airplanes overhead and American planes all tied up for lack of gas.

WAR THE ONLY ISSUE.

On the eve of the Fourth Liberty Loan one of the most insidious forms of propaganda, having as its purpose to stir up unrest and create dissatisfaction with the National Administration has made its appearance through-out Ohio.

The bold statement is made that "in the November contest the real issue is not the winning of the war but the rehabilitation of the nation after the war." The only construction that can be placed on this statement, those who have come in contact with the propagandists say, is that those interested in spreading this doctrine hope to leave the impression that candidates of a party headed by an ultra-pacifist will, if elected, see to it that agitation for peace will be forth coming regardless of European conditions.

In an article that has been given considerable circulation through Ohio newspapers that apparently have become "peace at any price" disciples reference is made to the vast sums of money that have been spent to equip our army and navy, properly clothe and feed our soldiers and to provide insurance and allowances for mothers and wives of men who have offered their lives to their country as "the greatest money spending orgy in the history of the world."

And, after juggling dollars in millions tens of millions, hundreds of millions and billions in such a way as to leave the impression that the money spent is as our share in the battle for world freedom has been wasted one article concludes:

"The question involved now is one of business judgment, of getting industries back on a firm basis after the war."

When official notification of this newest attempt to undermine the National Administration and breed dissatisfaction with the government's war program was given Governor Cox redeclared:

"I know the people of Ohio too well to believe for one minute that they will listen to any such disloyal utterances. Ohioans know that winning the war is the only business in which we now are engaged. From whatever source this story has come it will fall on barren soil in Ohio."

For year's we have had a mother's Day on which we honored "Mother" from sentimental reasons. With the outbreak of war mothers of men in the United States' service organized to be of any service possible to the boys "over there" and in cantonments on this side. Now we have the Patriotic League of Ohio, made up of fathers of boys who are serving their country organized to back up mothers with the power of the ballot. With these organizations "over here" the boys "over there" can feel sure we at home are playing fair.

Despite the fact that the employment of untrained labor in Ohio industrial plants has greatly increased as a result of the war there were reported in the year ending June 30, last, 13,532 fewer accidents than in the preceding year. Labor leaders give credit for this remarkable record of Gov. Cox and the last legislature which placed factory inspection upon the highest possible plane.

Ohio has been signally honored in war times. Edwin M. Stanton is universal recognized as the great war secretary of the Civil War. Newton D. Baker will be known, when his work is finished, as the great war secretary of the world war and Gov. James M. Cox has been referred to by Theodore Roosevelt as "Ohio's" great war governor in 1898.

Criticism of conditions during the early days of the mobilization of the National Army, which it is admitted were not perfected, are answered by those who remember the Spanish-American war days with the statement: "The worst cantonment in 1917 was infinitely better than the best army camp in 1898."

About now the boy who only last year felt honored to have the business men notice him, has become a commissioned officer, and bankers and manufacturers are proud to be seen with him.

Although the use of pleasure automobiles may be entirely forbidden to save gas, no one has suggested taking those 100 mile bicycle runs that we used to think were such hot stuff.

Of course all the German spies and microbe specialists don't know anything about the influenza that has all at once broken out in the army camps and naval stations.

If the soldier is willing to fight so you can stay at home and make money, at least buy a Liberty Bond so as to feed him and give him something to fire at the Hun with.

Of course what Kaiser Bill says today doesn't agree with what he said yesterday, but then it is less majestic for the German people to remember what he said yesterday.

Some of the candidates for office persist in discussing economy and efficiency, instead of getting next to the boys in the hangouts.

"SACRIFICES MADE IN NOBLE CAUSE ARE PLEASURE" HEROE'S LAST WORD

Letter Written by Lorin Cooperrider, Two Weeks Before Death Declares Service Rendered Under Stimulus of Cheerfulness is Best

The last word of Private Lorin H. Cooperrider, the fourth Licking county boy to give his life in battle, to his family at Glenford, Ohio, is a tribute to a braver and better outlook in the face of the heartaches incident to war. In writing his last letter dated July 28 to his sister Miss Mary Cooperrider he said in part: "Well, I am well and contented. My greatest discomfort is in knowing that you have allowed the world's calamity to take so much joy out of life. Remember every one of us whether in civil or the military life, is a unit of one to win this war and that this service can best be rendered under the stimulus of cheerfulness. We realize that those at home are making sacrifices the same as ourselves but sacrifices made in a noble cause become a pleasure if we apply the proper spirit of service to this cause."

PVT. LORIN COOPERRIDER, Company B, 166th Infantry Killed in France, July 28.

He rendered under the stimulus of cheerfulness. We realize that those at home are making sacrifices the same as ourselves but sacrifices made in a noble cause become a pleasure if we apply the proper spirit of service to this cause."

Following the official telegram received September 18 from the war department at Washington, D. C., by John C. Cooperrider of Glenford, concerning the death of his son, Lorin H. Cooperrider who was killed in action, Mr. Cooperrider received a letter from the Adjutant General of the U. S. A. A. A. Parker which reads:

"It is with profound regret that I confirm the recent telegram of the Adjutant General announcing the death of Private Lorin H. Cooperrider, Company B, 166th Infantry, who was killed in action July 28. The information re-

HOUSEHOLD EXPENSES.

(Washington Post.)
The War Labor Board has requested the housewives of the country to keep an accurate account of their household expenses and make report of them when representatives of the board call. These reports are to be used as the basis for estimates to gauge the increased cost of living and will figure as factors in fixing wages.

The statistics gathered in this manner will prove very interesting. Every head of a household knows that living expenses have advanced tremendously since the beginning of the war, but few know just how much. The average housewife may not keep a ledger account of her income and expenses, but she knows there is little margin each week after the bills are paid. The increases are not confined solely to rent, fuel and food. They extend to everything used by the average family, and in the aggregate amount to a large proportion of the income. The result of the proposed investigations will be awaited with interest.

PALESTINE RETAKEN.

(Ohio State Journal.)
Palestine has been retaken from the Turks and Bethlehem and Nazareth are in the hands of the Christian nations. How this war is emphasizing the mission of the Prince of Peace! It is reclaiming the land of sacred memories and restoring to civilization the earliest landmarks of Christianity. All these centuries it has been a sore in the heart of the world. The Turks should hold the birthplace of Christ and the region where he spent his life and first announced his beautiful mission to the world. The logic of the war is expressed in these glorious victories, which simply declare that "Peace on earth and good will to men" has materialized in this grand triumph. And these sacred places will never be taken by Turk or Hun again. They are victories of the greatest for humanity and will remain victories for all time. They are triumphs of humanity which Christ exemplified in his life when he was on earth and on these very spots proclaimed the Golden Rule as the basic law of all mankind.

FIGURING COST OF WAR.

(Manchester Guardian.)
To the average citizen, who thinks in hundreds if he is a professional man, or in thousands if a millionaire, the information that the world war from its beginning till its fourth anniversary has cost all the belligerents a total of $160,000,000,000 conveys nothing. An American newspaper has expressed this total in comprehensible terms. The entire cost of the American Civil war has been duplicated every 12 weeks, and each period of five weeks of the present war would pay for the Franco-Prussian war. The $160,000,000,000 would pay for 400 Panama canals, or you could construct 22 world encircling railway systems with it.

Spirit of the Press

Prohibition in California.
The Republican State Convention in California is notable for its endorsement of the Federal prohibition amendment, notwithstanding the fact that California is a wine producing state. The Democratic State Convention, representing a minority party, has endorsed war time prohibition. Altogether, public sentiment in California demands favorable action on the prohibition question.

ceived does not give the particulars but his commander has your address and should furnish you full particulars of the sad event. Should this office receive further information you will be advised in detail.

"Under existing circumstances it is impossible for the war department to return the bodies of our dead to the U. S. before the end of the war and such removal by individuals is not practical during the emergency. It is expected, however, that the remains of all American soldiers dying abroad will ultimately be returned to the U. S. for burial at their former residences at public expense."

"The date and place of burial have not yet been reported, but you will be advised of the detail as soon as received. With deepest sympathy in your loss, I beg to remain, Very sincerely yours, A. A. Parker."

Lorin H. Cooperrider was born Feb. 16, 1884 in Bowling Green township, Licking Co., Ohio, near Brownsville, where he received his earlier education in the High School of that place, later graduated from the Meredith Business College, Zanesville, Ohio, in the spring of 1907, after which he accepted a position in the Z. and W. R. R. office at Axline, Ohio, where he held the same position later holding a similar position in Cincinnati, Ohio, for a short time. On account of ill health he was forced to give up office work. In the spring of 1911 he left home in quest of better health spending two years in the west working out of doors, mainly at farming, though part of the time he was employed in the lumber camps in the hills of New Mexico and in Oregon. He spent the greater part of the two years in the states of Colorado, Oregon and California. At the end of this time his health being greatly improved, he set sail from San Francisco for Sydney, Australia.

December 1914 he embarked at Sydney on the British ship "Ophir" for London, Eng., passing through the Red Sea, Suez Canal and Mediterranean Sea. On reaching the war zone, the British ship was captured by the Italian navy and he remained in Italy, then being a neutral nation. He remained several days in London, visiting the principal places of interest, then went to Liverpool and after another brief period of sight-seeing he took passage on the American Liner Saint Paul, for New York arriving home the latter part of Feb. 1915. After visiting with friends and relatives west where he remained until Dec. 1916 arriving again at his home in Licking Co., Ohio about Christmas time.

He enlisted in Co. B of the Fourth U. S. I on the first day that Lieut. Oscar O. Koepfel began taking enlistments at his recruiting station on the south side of the square in Newark, Ohio.

ence of their rulers must be violently shaken by the spectacle of Arab horse-archers in the British service in Palestine. Are not the Arabs Moslems, and is not the Sultan of Turkey the Caliph, and has not a "holy war" been decreed, urging Moslems to kill all subjects of the infidels? Well, the Arabs are Moslems, but everybody except the German pundits knew that the Turks keep the Arabs in subjection—when they can, and in carrying out the program of Turkification, the proposed Moslems have been almost as brutal to Arabs as to Christians. As for the Caliphate, everybody but the learned Germans knows that the greater part of the Moslem world ridicules the claim of the Sultan of Turkey to be the Caliph.—Philadelphia Record.

BUY A BOND.

(By Arthur J. Matthews.)
When your country is in danger And you're asked to come across, Do not hesitate to carry What may seem your little cross. Dig right down and go the limit And remember when it's done, Every dollar you have given Means a bullet for the Hun!

Bullets for the brutal butchers, Who come forth to hack and slay, Aye, with orders from their leaders, To let our land stand in their way. Even to murder little children, Rape the innocent and chaste, And with incendiaries Make all lands a barren waste.

Can we face the world as humans, If we hold tight in our greed To our substance, while all Europe Pleads to us in direct need? Can we see her bleed and suffer Lured by a tyrant's base greed, While we in a land of plenty Fail to lend a helping hand?

Never, by the God who rules! Over this land of liberty: For we are men, we are freemen, Failed our brothers over the sea. No, already untold thousands Of our noblest, bravest sons, With the men of France and England, Face the cringing, craven Huns.

God, but isn't it simply glorious How that boy of yours and mine, Keeps our hearts and pulses throbbing At the way he bucks the line? Onward, onward, never turning, Every dollar you have given Means a bullet for the Hun!

From the battlefield and trenches There is wafted o'er the foam, Just a line, but how it thrills, All the Huns from hell can't stop him Till he stands in old Berlin.

Parents, friends look in the windows, See those bright blue service stars? Know you then, this is their message: Do your bit, and we'll do ours!

SOCIAL EVENTS

The Daughters of America will sow at the Red Cross rooms, on Tuesday evening, October 1. All the members are requested to be present.

Mrs. Margaret Murphy will entertain the members of the L. C. B. A. at her home in South Sixth street on Tuesday evening.

Mrs. Harold Hurst of North Franklin will entertain the members of the Missionary Society of John's church at her home on Thursday afternoon, October 3.

The first regular meeting of the Cotter Club for the season of 1918-19 will be held on Friday afternoon at the home of Mrs. J. W. Shaw in East Main street.

The new-year books, in tan and brown, were issued and the personnel of the officers for the year included: President, Mrs. Hess; vice president, Mrs. Cowley; recording secretary, Mrs. Eayre; treasurer, Mrs. Shaw; corresponding secretary, Mrs. Brooks; press correspondent, Mrs. Long.

The program arranged for the first meeting includes: Quotations—Mrs. Agnew. Song—"America." Surrendering the Gavel—Mrs. Winn. Greetings from Incoming President—Mrs. Hess.

Reading of Constitution—Mrs. Eayre. Announcement of Year Book—Mrs. Shaw.

Mrs. Thurman Tower will be hostess at the next meeting, which will be held at the home of Mrs. W. P. Winn in Maple avenue.

Edward L. Weisgarber, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Weisgarber of West Main street, was the honored guest at an attractively arranged surprise dinner Saturday evening when he returned on furlough from the Mechanical Institute at Cincinnati where he is in service.

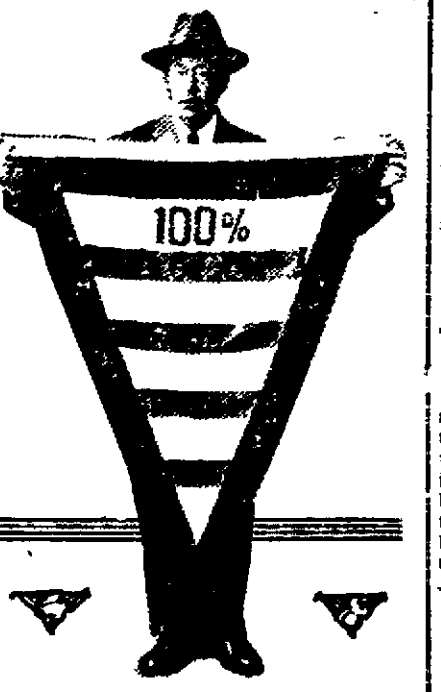

A party of friends went to Columbus to meet him with a machine and on reaching Newark, Jack Evans was host at a dinner at his home in West Main street. The appointments were all suggestive of the military, flags, and the national colors being used effectively. A delicious menu was served to sixteen guests, friends of the honor guest.

Japanese Ceremonial.
Calming earth's spirit, a ceremony peculiarly Japanese, which is supposed to date from the time of the first Emperor Jimmu Tennō, was recently performed at the site of the shrine erected in memory of the late Emperor Meiji.

The ceremony was conducted with Shinto ritual and elaborate ceremony and was attended by the ministers of state and high officials. The significance of the ceremony, which usually is performed on a lesser scale before the erection of any building in Japan, is that of purification of the land, homage to the deity of the earth and the destruction of any evil spirits that may exist.

It is a new development from the community honor flag, by means of which it is hoped there will be a greatly increased number of individual subscribers to the Fourth Loan.

DRAFT DRAWING GETS SWARTZ IN CITY AND COUNTY

First Number is 322 and Men of Same Name Will Head List.

The biggest lottery in the world took place today when the drawing of numbers for the 13,000,000 recently registered men in the new draft was made in Washington. President Wilson personally opened the ceremony of drawing the numbers according to the Associated Press dispatch.

The number drawn in the first capsule by President Wilson was 322 and that number developed a peculiar coincidence in this locality when in both the county and the city men by the name of Swartz were called into service.

Three hundred and twenty-two in the city drew John Frederick Swartz, 82 Stevens street, while in the county it called William Paul Swartz of Jacksonton.

The first numbers drawn for city follow:

322 John F. Swartz, 82 Stevens St.
1027 Samuel A. Holler, 110 Fairfield Av.
1697 Joseph A. Hall, 22 Dewey Ave.
2781 Aaron J. Hickey, 283 E. Main St.
438 Fred M. Johnson, Columbus State Hospital.

904 Perry V. Martin, 8 1-2 North Park Place.
1523 Charles D. Mayer, 223 N. 4th St.
1240 Willis Smith, Mount street.
1997 Caramela Sciffoli, 508 Wehrle Av.
3073 James A. Cox, 84 Leonard Ave.
20 Richard Klein, 168 Boylston Ave.
1255 Bernard J. Shanahan, 27 Holiday street.

2132 Harry L. Rexroth, 548 Kibler Av.
739 John W. Price, 380 Woods Ave.
535 Timothy Fitzpatrick, 70 Chestnut street.
219 Ralph E. Fluhart, 48 Cottage St.
625 Thomas H. Evans, 56 Western avenue.

72 James C. Stillion, 270 E. Main St.
832 Wilson Widman, 159 S. Third St.
664 Patrick S. O'Neill, 67 4th St.
2897 Albert F. Bradshaw, R. D. 6.
3505 John W. Bradley, 9 Ridge Ave.
345 Vasilio Saver, 75 Union street.

4 Claude A. Ditter, 54 North Ave.
196 Leo J. Hickman, 275 William St.
134 George B. Beener, 175 Clinton St.
295 Eddie J. Mock, 83 James street.
626 Delbert L. Keeckley, 226 Central avenue.

2531 John R. Bucy, 344 W. Church St.
677 Joseph N. Pugh, 282 Granville street.

The first ten men in the county were:
322 Wm. Paul Swartz, Jacksonton.
1027 Ralph Swartz, Deeds, Hebron.
1697 Albert Share, Pataskala.
2781 Don Frederick Riley, Jacksonton.
438 Asa M. Young, R. D. Granville.
1240 Lewis Lee Smith, Black Run.
1997 Lewis Ezra Davis, Granville.
3073 Don Frederick Riley, Jacksonton.

The first 100 numbers drawn included many which do not apply to Newark or Livingston county as the numbers were higher than any given to registrants here. The 100 numbers follow:

Number 1 is 322, 7277, 6708, 1027, 16169, 8366, 5596, 2433, 1027, 904, 12368, 1523, 7512, 6360.
No. 20 is 3748, 6540, 3808, 1240, 14846, 1907, 12521, 6593, 5941, 3073.

OBITUARY

Herbert Cotton's Funeral.
The funeral of Herbert J. Cotton will be held Wednesday afternoon at 1:30 o'clock at the First M. E. church. Rev. Mr. Spaulding will officiate. A large number of the sympathizers of the Masses. Members of the Molders Union will attend in a body. A firing squad of Old Guard will be at Cedar Hill and give a military aspect to the funeral.

Mrs. M. N. Hall.
Mrs. M. N. Hall, 56 of Homer, died this morning at 4 o'clock at the Private Hospital where she was taken Monday and operated upon Tuesday. She is survived by her husband and son and daughter. Mrs. E. N. Keeckley and Melvin Frye, one sister, Mrs. D. L. Keeckley and two brothers, S. D. Nash and C. W. Bash. Schaffer's ambulance removed the body to the funeral home. The funeral will be held Wednesday at 2 o'clock. Burial in Patterson cemetery.

Walter A. Lippincott.
The death of Walter A. Lippincott, aged 39, occurred at the home of his father-in-law, R. H. Nutter, 17 North street, Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock. He had been ill with pneumonia since a week ago Thursday and death resulted from double pneumonia. Mr. Lippincott was educated in the Newark schools and took an active part in high school athletics. Besides his wife he leaves his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Lippincott of 11th street, two brothers and one sister, Harry of Columbus and Fred of the home and Mrs. L. A. Kumbley of Granville.

The funeral will be held Tuesday at 2 o'clock p. m. in the First Presbyterian church. Burial in Cedar Hill.

Card of Thanks.
We desire to thank our friends and neighbors who in any way contributed to our comfort during the illness of our father, and also to express our appreciation of the sympathy shown him by his kindly acts and the beautiful floral offerings, and we especially thank the little children who so thoughtfully paid tribute to their friend.

John F. Shaw, Mrs. Ella Patterson, Mrs. Jennie B. Mitchell, Mrs. Effie McCleary, Mrs. Pearl Reed. 9:30 11x.

WOMAN BECOMES ILL.
Mrs. Blanche Smith suffered a heart attack yesterday while viewing the parade. Bradley's ambulance took her to her home in Hudson avenue, where she was attended by Dr. Nye. Her condition is very much better today.

CLOVES PARADISE HERE.
Rev. A. E. Crowley closed his pastorate at the Second Baptist church yesterday, and gave a moving picture work while here. He goes to the Hillcrest Baptist church of Columbus.

It's all right to win in a walk, but it is just as well to keep the Germans on the run.

NO "FLU" IN NEWARK. PHYSICIAN DECLARES

A false report has been going the rounds of the city that Walter Lippincott, who died Saturday, had died from Spanish influenza. His attending physician today made a formal statement that Mr. Lippincott's death had resulted from double pneumonia, and there were, at no time, any symptoms of the influenza. Dr. Evans further stated that he knew of no cases of influenza in the city.

NEWARK GIRL SUFFERS FROM SPANISH GRIP

Thelma Masey, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Masey, has been quite ill with Spanish influenza, at Abbott Academy, Andover, Mass., where she is attending school. Many of the eastern schools have been swept by the epidemic, and while Miss Masey was quite ill there were no alarming symptoms. Her condition is improved.

Fish Airplanes.
The name "butterfly-fish" is given in Torres Strait to a small rare fish that leaves the water and flies, or planes, for some little distance. Its flight is slow. The body is about four inches long, and shaped like a slightly flattened cigar. A perky little head at the fore-end is held higher than the back, and right aft, the trunk is fitted with a tail, shaped like the tail of an airplane. The wings, about three to four inches across, are butterfly shape and act as planes only, no movement in them being visible. Body, black; wings, spotted black and white.

And That Gets Him Nothing.
"De man dat's always imitating" other people," said Uncle Eben, "simply advertises de fact dat he ain' nobody much his own self."

Hotel Clerk Wants Fellow-Sufferers to Profit by Nerv-Worth Experience.

While the following statement from J. A. Hurd, at the time night clerk of the Hotel Murray of Cambridge, O., is of value to every reader who bears the burdens of nervous ills, it has especial significance for aged ailing folk, for Mr. Hurd is over three-score and ten.

Druggist Carl Brennan of Cambridge, reports that Mr. Hurd's high praise of Nerv-Worth came when that gentleman was a caller at the Brennan store to purchase a several bottle of the tonic. On being asked if the medicine was doing him any good, Mr. Hurd replied:

"It is the best medicine! Two years ago I had a stroke of paralysis which left me in bed shape. The doctors could do nothing. I had no appetite and could not remember anything. Was very nervous. A lady stopping at the hotel recommended Nerv-Worth. The first dose helped me and now I feel entirely a new man. I am 72 years old, but eat more in one meal than I used to in three days. Retained my memory and getting over my nervousness. Sleeping and general health much improved. I think that by taking an other bottle or two of Nerv-Worth will be entirely cured. You can use my name and welcome if it can be the means of helping some other sufferer."

T. J. Evans sells Nerv-Worth in Newark. Your dollar back if Nerv-Worth does not benefit you.

HUN POSITIONS ARE IN PERIL

Bitter Fighting Marks Advance of Allied Armies in Five Sectors in France.

(Compiled From A. P. Dispatches)

As a result of terrific attacks by the allies over five sectors, the aggregate length of which is more than 100 miles, the German positions in France appear to be in imminent peril.

From the North sea as far south as the St. Quentin region a tremendous battle is now flaming up, with the Belgians on the extreme north cutting deep into the positions the Germans held since 1914 and with the Americans, British and French smashing the Hindenburg line between Cambria and St. Quentin.

Northeast of Soissons, north of the Aisne, the French have gained the crest of the ridge along which runs the famous Chemin des Dames, from which the Germans apparently are hastily retreating.

In the Champagne sector, General Gouraud's French army has smashed its way ahead toward the vital German positions west of the Argonne forest. East of the forest and west of the Meuse, General Liggett's American army appears to be crushing the enemy's main position as it irresistibly rolls northward.

Everywhere the Germans are fighting with desperate valor. There is little indication that the morale of the enemy has broken, but under the sledge hammer blows of the allies it is only by fighting of the bitterest character that the gains made during the past day have been possible.

Realizing that he stands with his back to the wall and in danger of disaster the enemy is battling with all the resources at his disposal to check the allies before his lines are forced to break, and his entire army in France is forced to retreat toward Germany.

It is during the last day of the campaign that the enemy would seem to indicate that Marshal Poch's strategy in the present battle of battles is very similar to that followed during the Marne, Somme and St. Mihiel drives. He is attacking the lines of the German positions and intends by exerting pressure that there to compel the center of the enemy line to retire.

Again the offensive tactics of the allies may be likened to an immense pincer which slowly, but inexorably, is closing in on the German positions.

Far to the north the Belgians have cut deep into the German positions and not only threatened the enemy submarine bases along the Belgian coast but also place the German lines further south in extreme peril.

Cambria is now near its fall, apparently and south of that town the allies are far across the St. Quentin canal which was the key of the whole position north of St. Quentin. Further south the French seem to have completely outflanked St. Quentin and cut it off from the German stronghold at La Fere and in the St. Gobain forest.

Successes by the French along the ridge between the Aisne and the Marne make it virtually impossible for the enemy to hold his lines there. A ready retirement in this sector is admitted by Berlin. It would seem that this retrograde movement will compel the Germans to evacuate their front north and east of Rheims.

In the Champagne sector General Gouraud is slowly moving nearer to Chalons and his long range cannon are now within range of Vouziers, one of the principal German bases on that front.

American forces further east are moving north along the west side of the Meuse rivers and are threatened to outflank the whole Argonne forest and compel the Germans to retire from a sector which is apparently vital to the entire enemy line in eastern France.

In Macedonia the allies continue their advance into Bulgaria and are now on the western threshold of that country. On the west front in this theatre the Italians have forced the Bulgarians back through the mountains toward Albania. Bulgarian delegates who will confer with the American charge d'affaires at Sofia who is said to have had "played an important part in recent events."

The victim of love at first sight sometimes lives to regret that he wasn't gifted with second sight.

CZECHO-SLOVAKS FIGHT IN FRANCE FOR LIBERTY

Newark Man With Unit Says Regiment Has Been In Many Fierce Engagements.

That the Germans are glad to be captured in this sector held by Slovak troops is shown in a letter written to Mrs. Louis Laca 552 Seroco avenue by her brother Tabian Mahalik, of the 22nd regiment 1st Battalion Czecho Slovak.

He says:

"My regiment is at the front all the time. We have been in many battles

FABIAN MAHALIK

The noise where I am is awful. Can't hear anything but the roar of cannons all the time. So you read in our own N. Y. paper that the Germans were hanging the Slovaks. They do awful things but that is the way they haven't started yet. They are too short to hang us fellows. When we meet them in battle and turn the guns on them, they throw up their hands and run to us to take them. They are so hungry and so weak they can hardly stand or talk. They are being beaten all along the line. The English have been chasing them good.

France reminds me of our own country. Netra Corota, Slovakia, in Austria Hungary because you see the women working in the fields. We will fight and fight until we have our own flag again and are free from the iron heel of Austria Hungary.

We haven't lost a man in our regiment. There are thousands of Slovaks fighting with France. I received the money sent me thank you for I needed it.

Mahalik formerly worked at Wehrles. He enlisted through the Slavic society in New York. They do not receive any pay in the army but are paid by the society in this country. Uncle Sam furnished their uniforms. Mahalik came from Austro Hungary five years ago. He has a brother in the Austrian army. The letter was written in Slavish.

famous minstrel man, who has been before the footlights since the year 1873. There also is a little surprise for those who appreciate real classic and operatic singing. Mina Belle, high lyric soprano prima donna, who has been with Aborn Opera company for four years. George and Clara Burkham singing and all around dancing marvels. No claim is made that they are champions, but are willing to put them to the test before many champions and assure you that they will make champions take notice. Now as to fancy dancing we have Edna Ramsey, who dances from a Highland fling to a Spanish fandango.

GEM.

Tuesday.

A girl saved from suicide marries her rescuer out of gratitude only to discover that he belongs to the lowest class of criminals. The ink is not out of the marriage certificate when the husband is taken away to prison for one of his many crimes. Years after ward, the girl believing her husband dead, is engaged to another man, a man she loves, when the convict appears. This is the striking plot of the new Fox photoplay, "The Bride of Fear," in which the beautiful Jewel Carmen will be seen at the Gem the Tuesday.

ALHAMBRA.

Tonight and Tomorrow.

The great William Fox photoplay, "Du Barry," in which Theda Bara does her most brilliant work, will appear at the Alhambra tonight and tomorrow. This may be the most wonderful creation of its kind that has ever been presented on the films. All that Miss Bara has done only gives a suggestion of the charm and elaborateness of this great production.

The story is a historic one, which many have attempted to write, and it has even been seen upon the stage but it remained for the films and Miss Bara to give to the world the revelation of the character of this wonderful woman. It is known that the great actress spent a long time in studying the times of Louis XV and the woman who pervaded them, before she attempted the creation of this photoplay. There is no doubt that she has succeeded in a marvelous manner in grasping the subject, and in putting it upon the screen. One of the most remarkable features of the play is the dresses that Miss Bara wears, which were specially designed by her, after long consultations with experts on the period of Louis XV. These dresses are peculiar, however, in one way. They might easily appear in drawing rooms of today. Every one of them is a study of the art of womanly adornment, and as a thing of beauty in itself.

Miss Bara has discovered and revealed a thousand little details of the womanly toilette which will be immensely interesting to every woman. These secrets are revealed upon the screen in a most fascinating way, and make the film additionally attractive to all whom women charm.

In this play Miss Bara does her best work. Due to the fact that she has grasped the possibilities of the drama and has entered into it with a spirit which only she possesses. There are myriads of gorgeous scenes, each filled with brilliancy and charm.

ATTEMPTS ESCAPE FROM JUSTICE JONES' COURT

The trial of Frank Piccoli, arrested in Columbus two weeks ago for wounding Leo Grande, was heard in D. M. Jones' court Friday morning. The prosecution was conducted by Attorney L. C. Russell and the defense was represented by Attorney Fletcher S. Scott and J. D. Kaine of Columbus. Nothing could be proved and the case was dismissed.

Piccoli was then arrested for resisting an officer when he got away and was later arrested in Columbus. He was being taken from his boarding house and asked to go to his room. The officer waited in the lower hall and Piccoli jumped out of a back window and got away. When arrested again yesterday he got ugly and the court room was a lively place for a few minutes. The Italian attempted to get away but was only able to reach the street when Constable Forgraves got him. He was fined $100 and costs and is now in the county jail.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)

London, Sunday, Sept. 29.—Negotiations are proceeding between the Bulgarian delegates and the allied command at Salonika regarding the terms of the armistice proposed by Bulgaria, according to a Reuter telegram from Salonika.

It is pointed out that the fact that M. Radoff, former member of the Bulgarian cabinet and former Bulgarian minister at Bern, has been added to the delegation, shows that the Bulgarian government is in earnest in its offer.

M. Radoff is one of Bulgaria's most skillful and experienced diplomats and is an eminent writer and politician.

AMUSEMENTS

tion have written the local management for time in November.

The Windsor Club, composed of about 25 of the classy young men of our city, have purchased seats for the performance of "Her Regiment" and will attend in a body tomorrow evening.

The advance sale is large for The New Office Minstrels at the Auditorium this evening, but there still remains many choice seats.

LYRIC.

All this week at the Lane theatre, Nat. E. Parker's Modern Love Makers, a screaming farce, musical comedy, producing three different bills. It is useless to boast as to the quality of the show, because those of us that know a little of the amusement world, without a doubt know Nat. E. Parker, late star with Broadway production, "The Girl and the Baron," and has made people laugh in two dollar houses. He is the owner of the show and by chance that his comedian has been drafted into Uncle Sam he is taking his place. You also know probably of Tom Ward, the
